Dear Harold—

Please excuse the delay in getting to you the material that you requested. I was called away from Kingston for a while and could not get to it.

I'm on it now, but again may have to move away from my books, so I have to hold the final thing off for a while longer. Sorry, but it's pressures from outside me.

There's another hitch. I am not sure whether an affidavit sworn here in Canada would be valid in the U.S. I'm checking on that now, but will not know for a while, since my lawyer-friend is away.

~~If you find this difficult to read, please~~ excuse. I had a hand injury recently and find it impossible to type and very difficult to write by hand.

Still,

Dick.
